

PRIVACY POLICY

Joris Ide values your interest in our firm and products and your visit to our internet site. This privacy statement is made available to you in order to make you aware of how Joris Ide collects and uses individual identifying information of visitors to Joris Ide's website.

Joris Ide respects and protects the privacy of the individuals that visit the Joris Ide website and sites and individually identifiable information about you is not willfully disclosed to any third party without first receiving your permission as explained in this privacy policy.

1. Personal data

Non personal and aggregated information collected automatically

When you visit our web site, non personal information is recorded by the standard operation of Joris Ide's Internet servers, in order to monitor and enhance your online experience. Such recorded information may include (without being limited to) your IP address, the name of your internet service provider, the operating system and the type of browser you used, the date and duration of your visit, the name(s) of the visited page(s) and the amount of transferred data.

Personal information that you choose to submit

As a general policy, you are not required to disclose your personal data as a condition of using this web site. No personally identifiable information, such as your name, address, or e-mail address, is automatically collected from your visit to the web site.

However, Joris Ide's web site's various registration forms and surveys may request that you give us contact information (such as your name, mailing and/or e-mail address) and profile data (such as your preferences). In many cases, you choose the amount of information you supply (e.g. when sending us information through the web site, you may choose to include only an e-mail address for replies). There may be cases, however, where some of the information requested is identified as mandatory and some as voluntary. In such cases, if you do not provide mandatory personal information with respect to a particular activity, you will not be able to engage in that activity.

If you request information through this web site and supply Joris Ide with your e-mail address or your name and postal address, you accept that this data will be used for the purpose of providing the requested information and that Joris Ide may use this data in the future to provide other information about Joris Ide that might be of interest to you.

You have the right to consult your personal data, to correct your personal data, if necessary, and to withdraw your consent to the use of your personal data. For this purpose you may contact Joris Ide at the following address:

Joris Ide, 174 Hille , 8750 Zwevezele, Belgium

Images

For the purpose of security control of Joris Ide's premises on its various sites, including the parking as well as any movements on the various sites, images are recorded and held on file for a reasonable period of time. These images will not be used for any other purpose than the purposes described in this document. The by law determined pictogram indicates the locations where cameras record images. You have the right to consult your personal data. For this purpose you are requested to send to Joris Ide, for the attention of the plant manager, at the address indicated below a motivated request indicating date, hour and exact location of the recorded images.

Joris Ide, F.A.O. Plant Manager
174 Hille , 8750 Zwevezele, Belgium

Upon receipt thereof, we will review your request and respond to you in due time.

Personally identifiable information is never sold or leased to any third parties outside of Joris Ide group. Joris Ide may disclose user information in special cases when we have reasons to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to or interference (either intentionally or unintentionally) with Joris Ide's rights or property, other users of the web site, or anyone else that could be harmed by such activities.

2. Use of cookies

Cookies are pieces of information that a Web site transfers to an individual's computer hard drive for record keeping purposes. Cookies make using our web sites easier by, among other things, saving your passwords and preferences for you. These cookies are restricted for use only on our web sites, and do not transfer any personal information to any other party. Most browsers are initially set up to accept cookies. You can reset your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie has been sent. Be aware that some parts of the Joris Ide website may not function properly if you refuse cookies.

3. Use of IP addresses

An IP address is a number that's automatically assigned to your computer by your Internet provider whenever you're surfing the Web. When you request pages from Joris Ide's web site, our servers log your IP address. Joris Ide collects IP addresses for the purposes of system administration, to audit the use of our web site. We do not link IP addresses to anything personally identifiable, which means that your session will be logged, but you are anonymous to us. We may exceptionally use your IP addresses in cooperation with your Internet provider to identify you if we feel it is necessary to enforce to protect our service, web sites, customers, or others.

4. "Careers"

If you apply for jobs through the web site, you accept that the application will be processed either by Joris Ide or by the relevant subsidiary within the Joris Ide group. Joris Ide or the relevant subsidiary will use the personal data supplied by the applicants for the purpose of processing the application. Applicants have the right to consult their personal data, to correct the personal data, if necessary, and to withdraw their consent to the use of their personal data. For this purpose applicants may contact the recipient of the application at the e-mail address to which they have sent the application or to jobs@jorisode.com.

5. Security

Security for all personally identifiable information is extremely important to us. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best efforts to ensure its security on our systems. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, Joris Ide cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us.

The images are stored on our systems and are only accessible by a limited number of persons. The security measures applying to our systems are consistent with the generally accepted practice for these type of security measures applying and adopted by companies active in similar activities and of the same size as Joris Ide NV.

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of our web sites, or your dealings with our web sites, you can contact: Joris Ide amongst others at info@jorisode.be.

Information provided by you via general e-mail inquiries to Joris Ide such as your e-mail address is used only to respond to your inquiries in the ordinary course of business, and is never shared with third parties.

6. Links to other sites

The Joris Ide website may contain links to other websites of product and service vendors, manufacturers and partner companies. The sites linked to by Joris Ide are developed by people over whom Joris Ide exercises no control. These other sites may send their own cookies to users, collect data or solicit personal information and the privacy policy of the visited website will be applicable from the moment you enter the new domain.

7. Your consent and changes to the privacy policy

By using the Joris Ide website, you consent to the collection and use of your information as we have outlined in this policy. Joris Ide may decide to change this privacy policy from time to time. When we do, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of the information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances we disclose it.
